

Too Real For Fiction

Too Real For Fiction is a gripping true story that will take you on an emotional joy ride. Growing up in a suburb of Chicago, Ladae Conner is faced with major transitions in her life. She has to balance a new extended family, a new school, religious beliefs, and sexual attraction. She is encumbered with domestic fights, street life, and a teenage love triangle. Instead of letting these challenges deter her, Ladae uses them as fuel to accomplish her goal to attend college. However life continues to throw curve balls at this determined teenager. As a college student, Ladae is faced with even more trials and tribulations. Instead of giving up hope, she became an expert at finding any and all available resources to help her succeed. Her story of achievement is one that goes against the odds, and shows the readers that anything is possible.
