

John Forster

This is the first substantial book about Forsters life. Drawing upon much unpublished material, Davies describes Forsters career as a man of letters and presents detailed studies of his many important friendships and professional activities. The author also breaks new ground in discussing Forsters work as a journalist, historian, and literary biographer. Contents: Part One: Early Life and Influential Friends. Newcastle to London. Leigh Hunt. Charles Lamb. Bulwer, Macready; Part Two: The Man of Letters I: The literary life. Literatures friend. Friendships variations 1834-1855. Withdrawal and return; Part Three: Man of Letters II: Four Friendships. Robert Browning. Landor. Dickens. Carlyle; Part Four: Man of Letters III: Professional Concerns. Journalist. Historian. Literary biographer; Postscript; Bibliography (including Forsters mainly anonymous reviews)^R.
